

The Urban Land Institute Atlanta District Council celebrates 23 years of recognizing outstanding leadership in the Southeast with two life-time achievement awards: the Frank Carter Community Achievement Award and the Dan & Tally Sweat Community Leadership Award. Please complete the application below to nominate an individual for the following award. Submit the completed form in an electronic format by email to tamia.sammons@uli.org

The Frank Carter Community Achievement Award is given to a deserving individual in development or a real estate related field who has made an outstanding contribution in his or her lifetime to the metropolitan Atlanta area. Past recipients are: Tom Cousins, Bob Holder; John Portman, John Williams, John and Sue Wieland, Mack Taylor and Harvey Mathis, Ron Terwilliger; Larry and Mary Gellerstedt, Tom Ventulett; Herman J. Russell, Jr.; Charlie Brown; John and Helen Aderhold; Henry D. "Greg" Gregory, Jr; the late Harold A. Dawson, Sr; Don Childress, AJ Land, Ray Weeks, Dan Dupree, Blaine Kelley Jr., Jim Borders, and Egbert Perry.

Nominee:

Basis for receiving award (use an additional sheet if necessary):

The Dan & Tally Sweat Community Leadership Award is given to a leader in the non-profit or public sector who has made a significant contribution to promoting responsible land use in the metropolitan Atlanta region. This award may recognize a significant contribution to responsible land use through development or through promoting and implementing public policy that favorably impacts land use. Past recipients include: Renee Glover of the Atlanta Housing Authority; Rand Wentworth of the Trust for Public Land; Susan Mendheim of the Midtown Alliance; Sam Williams of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce; Leon Eplan of the City of Atlanta, retired; The Honorable Sam Massell, former Mayor of the City of Atlanta; John Sibley of the Georgia Conservancy, retired; Bernie Marcus, benefactor of the Georgia Aquarium; Hattie B. Dorsey, former President of the Atlanta Neighborhood Development Partnership; Wayne Clough, Carl Patton, former Mayor Shirley Franklin, Helen Tapp of the Trust for Public Land, Ed McBrayer of the PATH foundation, Bradley Currey, Jr., the late Harry West, A.J. Robinson, and Dennis Creech.

Nominee:

Basis for receiving award (use an additional sheet if necessary):

2017 Awards Schedule

March 23rd: Call for Entries

May 5th: Entry Deadline

July: Individual Award Recipients Announced

September 14th: Awards Dinner – Winners will be announced at the annual dinner

For more information about ULI Atlanta Awards visit: www.uliatlanta.org